

A Message From Our Director

Dear Fellow Servant,

One of the great too-well kept secrets of the West Virginia Baptist Convention is our School of Christian Studies. Many of our outstanding pastors began their journey to ministry by taking classes in the school and have even gone on to complete college and seminary. Even if you are simply a believer who wants to grow in the Lord beyond what your church may be able to offer through Bible study and Sunday School, the School of Christian Studies may be just the ticket for you. Aside from the classroom learning which takes place, the fellowship and relationships formed among students and teachers often leads to ministry connections and powerful prayer support that honors God and builds faith among the participants. It has been my joy to teach often in the school and personally experience this wonderful dynamic and now as director I invite you to join us to see how God might work in you and through you!
