

The General Studies Two-Year Program

The original program developed for the Advanced Level of Study is the General Studies two-year program.

General Studies Two-Year Program: Required courses for this program will be taught over a two-year period with at least four classes taking place each year with a total of eight classes to be completed. Upon completion, a diploma will be issued.

- In addition to the four classes on the schedule each year, we may offer Advanced Level credit for attendance at West Virginia Baptist Convention "Super Events" or other events as decided on by the School of Christian Studies' Advisory Board. You will be notified in a mailing one month prior to these special events in order to register.
