Commissioning Service for "Number Forty-Two!"

It was a beautiful Sunday afternoon on March 5th at the Parchment Valley Conference Center, as Sarah McCloy was commissioned to serve as an International Ministries (IM) global servant to Japan. Over the past year, she has affectionately become known as "Number Forty-Two," alluding to the fact that she is now the 42nd IM global servant to be commissioned from our WVBC family. However, Leslie Turley (IM Area Director for Southeast Asia and Japan) was quick to suggest that "Number Five" might be more appropriate. With this commissioning Sarah now becomes the fifth WVBC global servant to serve in Japan, joining a list that includes Leslie and her husband David, as well as Bill and Nadine Hinchman.

Joyce Bagiraneza, who serves as an IM Donor Advisor, participated in the service and commented on how quickly Sarah had raised her support. "In all my years of serving with International Ministries," she said, "I have never seen someone raise support as fast as Sarah!" Since her endorsement last January, Sarah has been invited to speak at 51 churches and 16 association meetings. Beyond that, she has received support from 70 WVBC churches plus numerous individuals. The WVBC family has certainly embraced her! That is what has allowed her to raise her full support in just shy of 12 months!

Other IM staff that participated in the service included Sandra Dorsainvil (IM Director of Short-Term Mission), Dwayne Doyle (IM Mission Partnership Coordinator), Keith and Deborah Myers (IM Global Servants to Mexico) and Susan Rice (IM Board Member). Letters were also read from Sharon Koh (IM Executive Director and CEO) and J.D. and Rhonda Reed (IM Global Servants to Bolivia), as well as a video sent by Gordon and Lee Ann Hwang (IM Global Servants to Japan).

Both of Sarah's parents had roles in the service. Mary Beth McCloy is the pastor of Mount Zion Baptist Church, Sarah's home church that actually commissioned her. Mark McCloy, who also serves as the Northwest Area Minister for the WVBC, gave the commissioning message. During his message, he charged the nearly 150 in attendance to continue praying for and supporting Sarah in the years to come.

Now that Sarah has been commissioned, she can officially leave for Japan, which she will do early this spring. Her first assignment will be for five years and will involve language training for at least the first year. After completing language training, she will then work at Shokei Gakuin University as a part-time instructor, teaching English and working with their chaplains' department. She will also be assisting Shokei Baptist Church, assisting with some of the pastoral needs.

In addition to Sarah, her Mission Partnership Team (MPT) was also commissioned. This team is made up of hand-selected volunteers who have committed to pray for and assist Sarah in a variety of roles during her first-term. Her MPT includes Sandy Foster-Currey, Praise Gardea, Cole and Katie Linder, Rebekah McCloy, Todd McClure, Zola Miller and Ornella Umubyeyi.

A big thank you goes out to everyone in our WVBC family who has prayed for, invested in and supported Sarah during this journey. It has been exciting to watch as she has listened to, discerned and now obeyed God's call on her life. A prayer she started praying several years ago was, "The harvest is plentiful but the laborers are few. Lord, send more workers to Japan." God used her to answer her own prayer. Will you also join her by praying that prayer? Maybe you will become "Number forty-three!"

The West Virginia Baptist Convention is a family of churches committed to reaching all generations for Jesus Christ both here and abroad by equipping one another to be healthy, growing and unified in Christ and for Christ.

Doing Christ's Work Together

Commentary

by Mike Sisson, Executive Minister

How Did They Know?

In the eleventh chapter of the book of Acts, we read, "And the disciples were first called Christians in Antioch." Historically, we know that this was not used as a term of endearment like we use it today. Instead, Christian was a nickname given to the people who were followers of Jesus Christ to mock them by calling them "Christones" or "Little Christs." Professor of New Testament, Craig Keener, in his Bible Background Commentary explains the, "Antiochans were known for making fun of people, but the Christians in the second century decided to adopt the title with pride"

Still, the question must be asked, "How did they know?" How could they tell who was a "Christ-one" and who was not? There were no organized churches with buildings, steeples or signs during this time. The Bible, especially the New Testament, was not in print for them to bind in leather and tote under their arms, display on a smartphone screen or repost on social media. They had no fish emblems on their cars (or cars for that matter) and Christian hymns and praise choruses had yet to be written. And this was long before the advent of cross necklaces or Christian t-shirts.

What were the key factors that identified these men and women as followers of Jesus Christ? Most likely they were identified primarily by their speech and perhaps more importantly their actions! They no doubt spoke of Christ by witnessing boldly of His death, burial and resurrection; proclaiming eternal life to all who accept Him. However, they also spoke like Christ! They refrained from gossip and harsh judgment of others. Instead, their lips uttered words of hope, encouragement and forgiveness. They lived their faith by following Christ's example. Their actions were those of compassion, helping the needy, dealing honestly and with utmost integrity. They served one another, placed others ahead of themselves and showed love to all people. As St. Francis of Assisi is often attributed as saying, "Preach the Gospel at all times, and if necessary, use words."

Jesus said, "A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another" (John 13:34-35). He also commanded us to, "love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, that you may be children of your Father in heaven" (Matthew 5:44-45a). In speaking of how the pagan society viewed Christians, even as they persecuted them, early Church father Tertullian wrote, "But it is mainly the deeds of a love so noble that lead many to put a brand upon us. See, they say, how they love one another, for themselves are animated by mutual hatred; how they are ready even to die for one another, for they themselves will sooner put to death" (Apology, 39).

Do we as followers of Christ exhibit this kind of love? Can we be recognized as Christians even without the emblems of our faith? Interestingly, someone has presented this question to us, "If you were arrested for being a Christian, would there be enough evidence to convict you?" After all, Jesus tells us to, "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven" (Matthew 5:16). In a world in need of a credible witness, may we strive to be recognized as "Christones" by our speech and by our actions.

Blessings, Mike

Keith and Deborah Myers Prepare to Return to Mexico

Written by Keith Myers Global Servant, International Ministries

Deb and I spend a significant amount of our time together viewing life through the windshield. As the scenery passes by, so does time. In the past 10 months, our 12-year-old Subaru (a.k.a.: "Stellar Stella") has amassed 25,000+ miles. It seems like we just arrived at the Mission House a few weeks ago. However, we have around a month before we return to our friends, family, ministry and home in Mexico for another five-year term as missionaries with International Ministries.

Throughout this part of the journey, God has chosen to reveal His story with us through the lens of relationship. Crossing our paths and filling our hearts during our home assignment have been congregations and individuals who love the Lord, the people of CICEM and us. Deb and I want to say "thank you" for your trust and belief in our call. All glory to God!

The visual impression that has been seared into our memories happened at our commissioning service in 2012. John Simmons invited our family to form a circle. He explained that sometimes this would be all that we had. However, next, he requested our Missionary Partnership Team (MPT) to join around us. By the end of the service, the entirety of the congregation surrounded us and prayed. During this home assignment, we have been honored to reconnect with many of those same people.

When we return to Mexico, we will hit the ground running! We have three teams scheduled in June and July. To help us with our teams we will host an intern for six weeks during the summer. In August, we plan on continuing our regional women's retreats, the theological training of our pastors and our church visits. We are excited to return!

In the meantime, we still have a few weeks in the US. Our minds are racing as we begin to mentally pack and say our "see-yalater's" to our friends and family. We each take two suitcases and a carry-on. Our best attempts to not compile "stuff" over the year inevitably fails. Once again, we will have to purge clothes and other paraphernalia. There is freedom found in less. We pray that your lives will be full of Christ-honoring relationships as we serve together in the advancement of the kingdom of God.

MISSION

Intentionally Engaging Communities for Christ

Will your church make it a priority this year to collect the Mountain State Mission Offering? With this offering 100% stays within West Virginia to support our various ministries. This year's statewide goal is $400,000.

Resources are available on our website and will be mailed to churches in early April.

Facility Upgrades at Camp Cowen

In 2023, the West Virginia Baptist Camp at Cowen celebrates 80 years of ministry on this little piece of heaven along the Gauley River. From ambitious but humble beginnings in 1943, the camp facility has grown to 20 cabins, a gorgeous Alice Randall Dining Hall, Hylbert Hall renovations to accommodate more than 350 people, two year-round residence homes, cabins for staff and volunteers, and numerous other outdoor features.

What began in 2020 as the Adopt-a-Cabin program has continued to gain momentum and expand the scope of renovations to the oldest of the camp buildings. To date, all twelve original-style cabins have brand new windows, seven now feature electrical upgrades and all twelve are scheduled to have new doors and storm doors installed this spring!

Constructed in the early years of camp, the main house at camp has supported the year-round care of camp by providing lodging for the staff on-site. Beginning in 2023, the house is undergoing significant renovations, including new plumbing, electrical work, insulation, bathroom renovations, kitchen overhaul and new drywall. This work will prepare the house for the next 80 years of ministry as it houses full-time, year-round staff and family!

How are all these projects possible without impacting camper fees? It is because of generous gifts from faithful servants of Christ who decided to give to the ongoing infrastructure needs of camp, allowing the West Virginia Baptist Camp to continue to improve the facility! Join us in celebrating these improvements and thanking donors whose financial support allows us to be good stewards of the camp facility!

(noun) a main encampment providing supplies, shelter, and communications for persons engaged in wide-ranging activities, such as exploring, reconnaissance, hunting, or mountain climbing.

At camp, we have a chance to live out Psalm 86:11 as we learn about the Lord, choose to trust in Him, and walk alongside one another as we grow in faith.

Like a base camp for a mountain climber, time at Camp Cowen gives campers time for refreshment, study, encouragement, preparation, debriefing, and equipping.

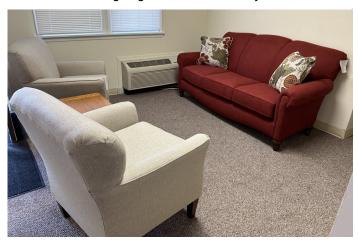

Focusing on the 23rd Psalm, we will dive into what it means to gather at the base camp!

Facility Upgrades at Parchment Valley

New LED lighting in the Greenlee Activity Center.

New carpet and furniture in the lodges.

Look what's NEW at Parchment Valley (PV). Since the last edition of the newsletter two months ago, we are excited to celebrate the following facility upgrades:

- New paint, carpet, furniture and LED lighting in the lodges
- New LED lighting in the Greenlee Activity Center (GAC) and new flooring and paint in the Keeney and Crouch rooms of the GAC
- New paint on the water tower after it was professionally cleaned and new security fencing installed around the water tower
- New French drains installed around the pool and House #2
- New furniture in the office and a sliding window installed on the office guest counter
- New eight-person buggy that was purchased to transport guests across the property
- New fiber optic high-speed internet lines installed by Frontier
- New Whippoorwill Covered Campfire that has been fully built and funded

We are so grateful for the staff, the PV Board of Directors and the many volunteers and donors who have helped make these upgrades possible. It is because of you that we can keep our vision alive at PV, of being a place "where lives are changed."

Be sure to come visit sometime this spring and see the upgrades! As many of our camps continue to expand, our PV Board continues to explore ways we can continue improving to better serve our guests and WVBC family.

Over 225 Individuals Attended This Year's Annual Training Event

This year's event started with a time of worship in Hill Hall, followed by a devotion led by Dana Gatewood.

Over 225 individuals attended this year's Annual Training Event, held Saturday, February 4th, at Parchment Valley Conference Center. This annual event is designed to be a day of worship, fellowship and workshops to help individuals better serve Christ and His church. During this year's event, attendees could choose from 14 different workshop options, including both the standard church officer workshops and several newer topics relevant specifically to churches today. Several of these newer topics were extremely well-attended.

If you were unable to attend this year's event but need resources or training for your church leaders, contact Todd McClure at todd@wvbc.org. We would love to provide you with resources from this year's event, or we can also provide you with training specifically tailored to your needs.

Senior High Convention: Discovering the Elements of Community

From the beginning, humanity was hard-wired for community – community with God and with one another. It is a tale as old as time: we want to have belonging and meaning. At this year's Senior High Convention, speaker Chris Campbell shared that this may be the single greatest issue of their generation. He then challenged our teens to set the trajectory and blaze a trail forward as they define, practice and model community for our world.

Throughout the weekend, teens explored three key aspects of community: faith, fellowship and action. With Marshall BCM's band leading in worship, Chris Campbell and Jeff Biddle bringing the Word, fun activities and deep discussions, students experienced connection through professing our hope in Christ, confessing our sins and failures and encouraging one another to bring the light of Christ to our homes, churches and communities.

Through the love of Christ, God's transformational work was present among us as two youth accepted Christ as Savior, numerous others rededicated their livesand several students prayed to get their lives back on track. We celebrate the blessing of the community of Christ's children growing together!

212 people from 27 churches gathered for this year's Senior High Convention held at South Parkersburg Baptist Church.

The National Men's Prayer Breakfast Was Held at 22 Churches

Main Street Baptist Church served as one of two National Prayer Breakfast hosts from the Teays Valley Association.

On February 25th, the American Baptist Men (ABMen) of West Virginia joined ranks with men across our nation and conducted our annual National Men's Prayer Breakfast. As thousands of faithful men assembled in faith, the intentions were to pray for one another, our missionaries, our pastors and our churches. In total, 22 churches representing 18 associations participated.

Jeff Fetty, pastor of Main Street Baptist Church in Point Pleasant, shared, "At Main Street Baptist, we hosted for the first time in four years. We had around 30 in attendance with individuals joining from both Lifespring Community Church and Concord Baptist Church. The deacons and I made breakfast, we had a local quartet sing and we took up an offering for the new ABMen's Scholarship Fund. I then led a Bible Study on the topic of prayer and we spent some time in group intercessory prayer. Finally, we all sang "What a Mighty God We Serve," and Pastor Justin Moran from Concord Baptist closed us out in prayer. It was a wonderful time and we are already looking forward to next year."

In total, between the 22 churches that hosted breakfasts, more than $2,000 was raised for the new scholarship fund. This fund is being established to help young men from our WVBC family who are entering college or technical school. Students can begin applying for this scholarship in the fall of this year.

If you would like to know more about the scholarship or about the ABMen, you can contact Frank Miller at miller@wvbc.org.

Pastors4Pastors Hosts; "A Pastor's Perspective on the Book of Galatians"

On Friday, March 3, there were over 20 pastors that gathered at Parchment Valley Conference Center for our Pre-Bible Conference Event, hosted by Pastors4Pastors. Each attendee enjoyed an evening of fellowship, dinner and worship led by Sam Gasaway. Dr. Lee Spitzer then led us through a chapter-by-chapter "pastor's perspective" study of the book of Galatians. It was an extremely rich study!

Our next Pastors4Pastors event will be our "Family Picnic," co-hosted with the Misters' Wives' Fellowship. This will take place at Parchment Valley in Shelter #1 on June 10th.

To learn more about Pastors4Pastors, contact Anthony Pratt at anthony_pratt@hotmail.com.

Over 270 Attended This Year's Spring Children's Rally

For the opening of their rally, the children enjoyed a sneak peek of Parchment Valley's new Whippoorwill Covered Campfire.

Over 270 attended this year's Spring Children's Rally, held on Saturday, March 4th, at Parchment Valley Conference Center. This year's theme was "Happy Camper," and children participated in camping-themed Bible lessons, learning that Jesus invites us all to join Him on a great adventure. The kids enjoyed activities, games and songs led by Caleb Villers, similar to what they're used to at Camp Cowen. And, of course, they had a large group "Attitude Check!"

Every children's rally also has a mission project. This rally's project was to collect supplies for the Foster Closet in Grafton, WV. Children brought in items such as toiletries, duffel bags, bedding sets, socks, underwear, gift cards and more. The children have a heart for helping people, and we are thankful for their churches teaching them about serving others!

Go ahead and mark your calendar for the Fall Children's Rally, and plan on joining us on Saturday, November 4th, at Parchment Valley.

8th Annual Bible Conference: The Gospel for All

The 8th Annual Bible Conference was held on Saturday, March 4th, at Parchment Valley Conference Center. This year's study explored the Book of Galatians and was titled "The Gospel for All." Dr. Lee Spitzer, former General Secretary of the American Baptist Churches USA, led the study from his recent translation of Galatians, which he referred to as a "devotional interpretation." The morning session focused on the spiritual journey described by Paul, and the afternoon session focused on the relationship between Jew and Gentile. It was particularly interesting hearing from Dr. Spitzer in the second session, considering he was born a Jew and converted to Christianity at the age of 14.

Around 70 were in attendance and benefited tremendously from this extremely rich study. Several pastors left with some good sermon material for the next few months! We are grateful for the Parchment Valley staff who helped make some last-minute accommodations after the windstorm knocked out the power for most of the area. The staff were able to move us from Hill Hall to the Administration Building and we were able to continue our conference, running off a generator.

Our Annual Bible Conference always takes place on the first Saturday of March. We hope you can join us next year for what will be our 9th conference.

Seminary Open House

Time: All day

Location: Parchment Valley, Santrock Education Building

Have you considered attending seminary? Please join us and sit in on an actual class. Lunch is provided!

Graduation Banquet

Time: 6:30 PM

Location: Parchment Valley, Hill Hall

All are welcome to join us as we celebrate the Class of 2023. You can RSVP on the Palmer WV Facebook page.

For more information, contact Dr. Allan Copenhaver, program director, at (304) 763-8564 or rcopenha@eastern.edu.

Covered Campfire Dedication

It is through your faithful support that we can now celebrate the completion of the Whippoorwill Covered Campfire! As part of the celebration, we want to invite you to join us for a special Dedication Service on Saturday, May 6th, at 1 PM.

The Dedication Service will include an opening prayer and remarks by Mike Sisson, a recognition of volunteers and donors, special music from the Putnam Family and a special lighting of the first flame. A BBQ lunch will also be included.

Everyone from our WVBC family is invited to join us for this special day. For those who are part of the WVBC Executive Board, the Dedication Service will take place immediately following the conclusion of Executive Board meetings.

To RSVP, call the Parchment Valley office at 304-372-3675.

BCM Student Spotlight

Photo Credit: Alderson Broaddus University Athletics Website

Baptist Campus Ministry exists on nine different university campuses around the state and has the mission of "changing lives that change the world." Dwayne Johnson, Jr. is one such student who is living out that mission.

Dwayne is a senior Exercise Science major at Alderson Broaddus University. He is originally from Baltimore, MD. He has been a steady leader in BCM, serving as the BCM President for the last two years. He has also had major success in the classroom, being named honorable mention for the Dean's list last semester. In addition to school and BCM, Dwayne is also on the wrestling team and recently won the Mountain East Conference title at 197 pounds!

With whatever platform God has given him, he continues to give God all the glory and uses that platform to "change lives that change the world."

Northwest Area News

by Mark McCloy, Northwest Area Minister

"I tell you, open your eyes and look at the fields! They are ripe for harvest" (John 4:35).

Do you ever think that Jesus sees something different when He looks at the world? Something different than what we see? It would be easy for us to think that He sees something negative. But this passage sounds anything but negative. I think God originated the idea of possibilities-thinking. When He sees our neighborhood, He sees what could be, not just what is. Let us never forget that all things are possible with God.

Think about how Jesus described His own ministry: "The blind receive sight, the lame walk, those who have leprosy are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised and the good news is proclaimed to the poor." Lots of things were happening. What is God doing in your neck of the woods?

Here are just a few that I can think of: Auburn Baptist Church has started a new youth group and has had a couple of baptisms. Pond Creek Baptist Church has called Rev. Bill Law as their new interim pastor. Lubeck Community Baptist Church has called Rev. Chad Mugrage back to West Virginia to serve as their new senior pastor. Rev. John Putnam has transitioned into full-time ministry at Glenville First Baptist Church. Weirton First Baptist Church ordained their pastor – Rev. Judi Bartlett-Tomes. And what about revival? Revival meetings began in early March for the students of Glenville State University, helped along by a number of churches in their area. Two of my associations, Good Hope and Harrisville, will be having roving revivals (meeting for a week at a different location each night) this spring.

God is doing a lot in my area! The question is: what is He wanting to do in your neighborhood?

Michael Perry Installed at FBC Nitro

On February 19th, Todd McClure and I were honored to be able to participate in the installation service of Pastor Michael Perry at Nitro First Baptist Church. After worshiping through song, prayer and a great message from Michael, I was able to lead a short service of installation that included charges to both Michael and the church body. A delicious meal was prepared and enjoyed following the service.

Michael and Vanessa Perry after the installation service.

Men's Prayer Breakfasts in the SW Area

Coal River Association Men's Prayer Breakfast at Racine First Baptist.

The Southwest Area celebrated the American Baptist Men's Prayer Breakfast on February 25th with several different churches hosting for their associations. Some of our associations even had more than one location. The Coal River Association men met at Racine First Baptist, the Guyandotte Association men met at both Fifth Avenue Baptist and Pea Ridge Baptist, the Kanawha Valley Association men met at both Kanawha City Baptist and Diamond Baptist, the Logan-Mingo Association men met at Bob Evans in Logan, the Teays Valley Association men met at both Hurricane First Baptist and Main Street Baptist, and the Twelve Pole Association men met at Fort Gay Baptist. I was blessed to have the opportunity to speak at Hurricane First Baptist at 8 AM. Several men praying about issues that God had placed on their hearts made this a special gathering. As if I didn't eat enough there, I was blessed with the opportunity to drop in on the Twelve Pole Association breakfast at 10AM. I was certainly full when I left there!

New Deacons Ordained a Beulah Baptist

The laying on of hands for deacons Matthew Ezzi and John Hardesty.

On January 29th, Beulah Baptist Church ordained Matthew Ezzi and John Hardesty as their newest deacons. The ordination service was led by Dr. David Bess, pastor. I also had the pleasure of participating in the service, alongside Associate Pastor Jonathan Minear and other members of the church's deacon board. The church has been blessed by the provision of these two servant-leader men and their families.

Evelyn Lange Retires at Elkins FBC

A lot of ministry, renovations, remodeling, additions and changes have occurred in the life of Elkins First Baptist Church over the past four and a half decades. However, one constant through it all has been the faithful ministry of Evelyn Lange. Recently, Evelyn retired after serving for 45+ years as the church's administrative assistant.

The church honored Evelyn's ministry with a retirement celebration and dinner on February 19th. As a tribute to her ministry, the church dedicated the Fellowship Hall in her honor. As Evelyn's church family expresses their thanks for her ministry, those of us in her WVBC family who have been blessed by her love and friendship also wish to express our gratitude.

Hopewell Association Youth Rallies

Jeremy Nicholas, pastor of Smoot Baptist Church, has "re-booted" the Hopewell Association Youth Rallies which were shut down due to COVID. For many years these youth rallies have given teens from Greenbrier, Fayette, Nicholas and Webster Counties an opportunity to gather and worship each month at different association churches. Students and adults are happy to see these rallies begin again.

Hopewell Association students participate in "Holy Hollywood Squares," competing in teams to answer Bible trivia questions.

Jim Truman Installed at Calvary Baptist

Jim Truman was installed as the associate pastor of Calvary Baptist Church in Oak Hill on February 5th. Jim will be working with children, youth and families in the Plateau Area. In addition to his ministry at the church, Jim also works as a public school teacher while pursuing a degree from Palmer Theological Seminary. Jim and Autumn have three sons.
